Dear Friends,

It seems a long time since I wrote my last letter; in fact it was at the beginning of April as I was going away on a mission to Melanesia, going on the long trip to the Solomon Islands. You may wonder why, holiday perhaps? No, certainly not. As many of you know Feniton has a close link with Melanesia in the South Pacific. John Coleridge Patteson, who was brought up at Feniton Court, became the first Bishop of Melanesia and took Christianity to the Solomon Islands. I have for many years been interested in this link and when the opportunity came to represent Exeter Diocese at the enthronement of their new Archbishop, the Right Reverend George Tekali, I was excited to make the trip.

It is a long way, first having to travel to Brisbane and then onto the Solomon Islands. Our return trip was 44 hours door to door! It was certainly worth it, however what really struck me was the welcome. After our long trip over there we were met with a continual stream of open and encouraging welcome from a wide variety of people, the like of which I have never received before. Their genuine excitement and joy at greeting us with garlands, handshakes and song was overwhelming. Their unique outpouring of cheer and joy was something to behold. So different from our formal greetings and handshakes, with the occasional smile!

More than that however, was their generosity and hospitality. The islands are poor and not very well developed, there a few natural resources and so much of their daily needs are imported, but wherever we went we were given the most amazing hospitality. People would give you their last crumb and go without themselves. From their basic existence they would provide us with such a welcome of food and entertainment that it was truly humbling. Nothing was too much trouble and nothing was expected in return.

I have returned with much to think about. Our comfortable existence in rural Devon is a joy but do we express it? We have so much in comparison but do we openly share it? Are we as openly hospitable to the stranger in our midst or welcoming to those in need of refreshment of all kinds? Those of us of faith, do we share it joyfully and truly live our faith? All difficult questions and ones which I am pondering on because of my experience but ones which I am sure we could all spend a few moments reflecting on.

Every blessing, Rev Cate

Broadhembury and District Gardening Club

Last month, Michael Kennaway gave an interesting talk that highlighted the importance of a well-sited pond constructed of suitable materials. He explained that careful selection of plants is important when creating a pond as many can be very invasive.

The plant sale was a great success and although the weather was poor, it was very well attended so thank you everyone. Our next meeting is on Wednesday 1st June at 7.30pm in Broadhembury Hall when our speaker will be Sarah Chester from RHS Rosemoor and BBC Radio Devon.

Parish Coffee Morning

Very many thanks to Pat and Brian Salter for hosting the Coffee Morning in April, which I hear was a great success, as always. We are sorry to hear that Pat is unwell at present, and wish her a speedy recovery.

It was a shock to find our hostess, Babs, wearing a sling when we arrived at the get-together in May, not that this detracted from the warm hospitality we always enjoy from our kind hosts. Many thanks Babs and Roger and we do hope the injury heals very soon.

Our next Coffee Morning will be held on Wednesday 22nd June at 11am at 18 Markers Park by kind invitation of Louise and Ray Granger, when regular supporters and newcomers may be assured of a warm welcome.

All proceeds to Church funds. If you'd like to know more about the Coffee Mornings, or need a lift, please call me on 841828.

Clarets' Corner

Just one word to say this month - CHAMPIONS! As I predicted, Burnley FC are promoted back to the Premier League, winning the championship by four points after an excellent 3-0 away win at Charlton Athletic. My friend, the well-known Arsenal fan from the Upton area, has paid his £5 for the bet we had at the beginning of the season (he was sure we had no chance of promotion!) I'm sure we will have another bet next year. Roll on the 2016/17 season! WELL DONE to Kirsty and her team for a well organised May Day event. It was very good and there was a great turnout. We were just finishing the last event - the egg throwing - when the rain came so couldn't have timed it better! Finally, best wishes to Peter Cocker from Barrow Road who celebrated a big birthday recently (a big Manchester United fan!)
See you around the village and UP THE CLARETS!

PAYHEMBURY PROVISIONS NEWS

It's summertime and the shopping is easy! We have stocked up on all sorts of summery goods from beach balls, fishing nets and crab lines for a family day at the seaside to everything you need for a barbeque in the garden. We have fresh meats, salads and bread as well as frozen desserts, lollies and ice creams including the locally made Otter Valley ice cream. After a hard day at work what better way to unwind than picking up a chilled bottle of rosé from the shop and enjoying it in the garden in the evening sunshine. And don't forget we have croissants and pastries for leisurely weekend breakfasts too.

Finally a quick word about our customer accounts, these have proved a very popular way to help make your life simpler. For just £5 you will be able to buy a share in the shop and open your own account. The credit limit will normally be about £100 to start with but may be increased later if you wish. Any purchase you make in the shop can be added to your account and, with your agreement, your immediate family, including your children, can also use the account. Every time you put anything on your account you will be given a receipt which clearly shows what has been added and the amount of credit left. All we ask in return is that you settle your account at the end of each month. Not only is it an easy way to keep track of what you are spending on everyday items but it is also very handy when you're out and about with no cash and you remember that pint of milk or loaf of bread or impulsive chocolate bar you meant to buy! Try doing that at the big supermarkets!

CUP OF TEA AND BINGO

Our next get-together will be on Wednesday 1st June
in the Parish Hall from 2.15pm

Great to be back in the swing of things again and to see old friends. Could still do with a few more friendly faces! Do come along and enjoy a couple of hours of good company, a few games, a cup of tea and a piece of yummy cake! Promise you will want to come again and again and again....

Look forward to seeing you there...Louise and Joy

PAYHEMBURY POETRY POT

Here are two free verse poems, one by Jane Wood and another by me. Mine was written after seeing the demise of an oak tree, apparently still in good condition and with little evidence of rot or dead branches.

We will now take a break and return to the Payhembury Poetry Pot in the winter, when many people have more time to ponder and write. I would be interested in your thoughts on whether we could widen the scope of the writing to embrace, for example, short stories and writing to a particular title such as 'A day I will always remember' or 'An embarrassing experience' or 'What I like about where I live'. If you have any thoughts on this, please do contact me on 01884 277390 or j.w.somers@exeter.ac.uk

All past poems can be seen at: <http://www.payhembury.org.uk/payhembury-poetry-pot-acrostic-poems/>

My thanks to all those who have sent in their work.

John Somers

Fall of a friend

The brown plastic sheath which guarded sapling
Has no use.
Partly broken, it leans back in the hedge and rejoices at
The tree it shielded,
Which, losing its summer coat, views brothers, fields and distant hills
Its older, bigger brother stands alongside - majestic, strong,
Until the bucking, greedy chainsaw comes.
Harsh and whining,
It spits out the tree's cartilage until with one last heightened glance and roar,
The living, beautiful thing

Falls.
Its moist life force gone,
Its spirit is now entombed in suburban furniture and posts and rails,
And roars its rings away in wood burners.
No bracing feel of dancing wind or pride at fecund acorn crop.

Dear feller
Think twice before you engage those hungry teeth with the wooden flesh of ages.
And when at last she falls, as all must,
Ensure the guard is used again to nurture future oaken kings.

John Somers

Vi

It was January the seventh
When Vi died.

Once the communal tears
Had all dried
I brought her back
To reside in My wardrobe.

As I wore dresses
Covered in bold prints
She ventured out
In a cloud of
Lily-of-the-Valley
Holding out china plates,
Refilling glasses,
And sipping Babycham.

QUEEN'S 90TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS SATURDAY 11TH JUNE 2016

The Queen's 90th Birthday Celebrations are fast approaching! Those of you with children at Payhembury School have responded but if your child is not at the school and would like to come, please contact me.

There is a competition for the 'Best Crown or Hat', on the theme of anything to do with the event such as the Queen, 90, the royal family over the years, or something you particularly remember about the Queen. We hope you will wear your crown or hat to the tea party and there will, of course, be a prize for the winners in three age groups, those aged up to 7, those aged 8 to 11 and those aged 12 to 100 years!

The fun starts with a tea party at 2.30pm outside The Six Bells when everyone needs to wear their hat (adults too!) This will be followed by Payhembury's Got Talent and I hope you've been practising! A form to sign up to perform is in the shop so put your name down to do whatever you fancy as we will love to see it!

Finally, the pub has music and a BBQ from 5pm so come and enjoy what is going to be a fun day for all ages.

Sue Derbyshire 841103

thank you

I would like to say a very big thank you to everyone who sent me birthday cards, or who turned out in poor weather to have their photo taken on the village green, or who signed the massive birthday card from the village with dozens of signatures and greetings, as well as presenting me with a bottle of sherry for my 90th birthday. I can truthfully say it made me feel very humble and made me realise once again what a marvellous village we live in. As our eldest son Stewart remarked, "I can understand now why you love Payhembury so much". Many, many thanks to you all, you made my day very special for me.

Yellingham Farm Diary – May

Lambing seems light years away and the lambs are growing on strongly and look wonderful. After a few weeks of calm, the sheep now become fairly labour intensive. Sheep do love to die for no reason whatsoever, so we do everything we can to avoid it happening. Today we have vaccinated all the lambs with their first dose of 'Heptavac-P Plus' which is a vaccine against clostridial diseases and pasteurellosis. I liken it to vaccinating our children when they are young. The sheep get a second dose 4-6 weeks later. Poor things being jabbed!

The other thing we are now planning for is shearing the ewes. More on that next month. But the danger for the ewes and lambs now is every shepherd's nightmare - fly strike. Hot damp weather and the bluebottles love a damp fleece and will lay their eggs by the hundreds, which of course then develop into maggots which are potentially so dangerous to sheep. Good shepherding, clean sheep and a spot of good luck and we pray for the best.

The bullocks are now looking stunning and for those of you who walk past the farm, have a look - their coats look like they are wearing a mink coat! Janet

ITALIAN EVENING

An Italian Evening will take place on Friday 10th June in the Village Hall at 7.30pm. Tickets are £15 to include a glass of prosecco, a three course supper, quizzes and music. Please bring your own drinks, water will be on the table and glasses provided. There will also be an Italian raffle! Most of the tickets are sold but please contact Babs on 841409 if you are interested. Please also let Babs know of any dietary requirements. It should be a good evening!

BROADHEMBURY WI MEETINGS IN JUNE

Last month it was our turn to host the group meeting of local WIs and so 68 of us met up for cake, tea and coffee, and quizzes. We also had a field trip to the Exeter Synagogue in late May and discovered that it's the second oldest synagogue in the whole of the country.

This month we will be meeting on Tuesday 14th June at 7.30pm in the Hall to hear of 'London Suits to Welly Boots' as author Simon Dawson talks of his move from London to an Exmoor smallholding and its consequences. In addition, the skittles group will enjoy matches on the 1st and the 22nd of June.

Anyone interested in joining us please contact Julie Ashcroft on 841189.

Nature Notes Observations from May

Hi there

Spring has well and truly arrived, hasn't it? The swallows are about, particularly around the piggery at Spence Cross! We went for a walk through the woods at Escot and heard the blackcap singing, plus chiffchaffs and willow warblers. We were disappointed that the bluebells were not yet in flower on the 30th of April.

I walked up the lane as far as Cook's Farm the other day. It was lovely and sunny which brought some butterflies out. Two peacocks, small whites, a red admiral and several orange tips. The lanes are a picture at the moment with lots of wild flowers in bloom, such as bluebells, campion, stitchwort, buttercups and dandelions.

Guess which bird Roy has had in his garden - a cuckoo! I've not heard one in the UK for many years, never mind seen one. I've heard them abroad but that's as near as I've got! Bidy tells me she sees nuthatches in her garden and they produced young last year. Kirsty Cann and Ray Granger have both seen siskins in their gardens. These are small green finches, very dainty and pretty.

Yesterday, there was a slow worm in the middle of our lawn. It was about a foot long and very alive! What was it doing there, right out in the open? It must have been caught by a cat, or a bird, who dropped it on seeing me approaching. I saved its life by placing it in the long grass behind our compost bins!

young reporters

At the Parish Council community coffee morning we recruited two young reporters to find out more about some of the organisations taking part.

Thank you Thomas and Ellie! This is what they discovered:

- The bell ringers are looking for new members and you can go and try it out at any age from 13 up. You don't have to be massively strong although the heaviest bell weighs as much as a small car. There are six bells and the oldest was made in 1430.
- The Tale Valley Trust has been going for 14 years and has helped to save water voles from being eaten by mink and has cleaned up the River Tale which was very polluted. They have helped lots of people too.
- The Community Theatre was started in 2000 to celebrate the new millennium and they have done about 15 plays. John Somers' favourite was the first play.
- The church started to be built in the 12th century and was rebuilt in the 19th century. It costs £25,000 a year to keep it going. Families and older people go to church.
- Payhembury Provisions was started nearly 5 years ago. There are nearly 40 volunteers and the Post Office is open there on Mondays. They sell a lot of Tango!

Churchyard Clean Up!

On Saturday 25th June from 10am to 12pm. Please come and help keep the churchyard looking neat for our summer visitors. Bring strimmers or just yourself. Thank you!

Dear Friends

What a busy time of the year this is! Mum and Dad are busy sorting out our nests after the winter and we have been told that we have to do the same. It's not a job Parchina and I like doing. We have got to sort out all the old straw bedding, underneath which we find all sorts of rubbish that we were too lazy to throw away when we should have. Sometimes though we have found something of interest. I found a tiny chocolate egg left over from the Easter egg hunt, so I was kind and shared it with Parchina. It was a bit dusty but it still tasted good, so thank you to all of you who weren't so good at finding all the eggs! Anyway, we now have some lovely, nice, clean, soft bedding which does smell good. All the rubbish has been carefully taken to the compost heap; we mice are good at recycling you know!

Rev Cate was away for a time and we saw Rev Anita take the school services. It made a change and she didn't muddle up the children's names!

Rev Cate was back for a lovely wedding we watched. Jamie and Ross got married on the same day as hundreds of bikes appeared in the village. There were several other brides and vicars who looked a bit strange and we weren't sure they were the real thing and then they all rode away. So not only did we have fun collecting confetti but also lots of crisp crumbs that the cyclists left. We did wonder whether Ross and Jamie might ride away on a bike but they didn't. Parchina told me Jamie wouldn't be able to ride a bike in her lovely dress. It was all great fun as we love to hear people laughing and singing so we can join in and not be noticed.

Well, we must dash as I can hear the bluebells ringing and that must mean teatime.

Bye, Parchie and Parchina

Payhembury Weather

www.payhembury-weather.co.uk

Rainfall: April and the first half of May have had less than the normal rainfall although very heavy downpours experienced and local flooding in Feniton on the evening of 11th May.

Temperatures: Daytime temperatures were above average in both months but the April night-time temperatures were cooler than normal and some Spring frosts were experienced. We did experience a warmer spell at the beginning of May.

Weather elsewhere: April was the seventh month in a row that broke global temperature records and this was one of the factors leading to the Canadian Wildfires with prime tinder for fires to start. As a result 80,000 people were evacuated from the town of Fort McMurray in Alberta

THE NEW VILLAGE TREE

We hope you have admired our new village tree. The Autumn Blaze Acer was planted at the end of April and is looking well. Our grateful thanks to those who contributed towards its purchase, without which it wouldn't have been possible. So a big thank you to Mr and Mrs Daymond, Mr Alan Evans, Jim Stanes and Jessica Macan (who donated in memory of their father, Robin Stanes, who lived in and loved Payhembury) and Heather Wallace whose mother planted the original cherry tree as Chair of the WI over fifty years ago. We are very lucky to have so many people willing to help Parish causes. There'll be a ribbon-cutting ceremony to thank our contributors shortly, so look out for details on the noticeboards. We'd also like to thank Kate Wooff, Jon Scarle and Tim Woolgar for volunteering to water the tree. Payhembury Parish Council

PAYHEMBURY VILLAGE BELLS

The village bells ring out to announce births, marriages and sometimes, sadly, to remember a person we've lost. Three of the bells are very ancient being over 500 years old. Considering their age they're not in bad condition but are at a stage when they need a little TLC. There's only a small band of ringers in the village but we feel it's the responsibility of each generation to ensure the bells remain in workable condition for the next. In order to repair the bells we aim to raise £15,000 from grants and hosting local events and would also be grateful for any donations.

We are to hold a Village Fair on Saturday 9th July to raise funds. There'll be tea, cakes and sandwiches and stalls to tempt you to part with your money! Teams from all over East Devon will compete in a ringing competition and you will be able to hear them trying to out-do each other during the afternoon. We hope you will all come along to cheer the local team and enjoy the Fair.

If anyone has donations for either the Bell Fund or the Fair (books, plants, toys, tombola and raffle prizes) please contact me on 07786 855973 or linhorrocks1@gmail.com or leave a message at the shop. Donations can also be given to Pat Fowler (please specify it is for the Bell Fund). Lin Horrocks

NEW PARISH CLERK REQUIRED

We are seeking a new Parish Clerk to take over from Sue Morris. The Council meets every two months in the Hall, and the Clerk takes minutes, administers the Council's finances, carries out actions from the meetings, and liaises with East Devon District Council. This is a paid position. Contact Keith Williams (Chair) on 841772 or Sue Morris (Clerk) on 850094 for further information.

This issue of the Parish Paper contains a donation envelope which we hope you will use to give towards the costs of printing this magazine. Everything else is free, but we do have to pay the printer and our printing costs have just increased.

Our aim is to ensure the Parish Paper remains free of charge to all.

The Parish Paper committee would like to say a big thank you for all the donations received over the last year.

Your donation envelope can be left at the village shop. Thank you!

Supporting Sally

An Interactive Theatre Programme on the onset of dementia

Sally is 66 and has had a successful career in a marketing company 'POSTBITS'. She was persuaded by the company's owner to continue working part-time, post-official retirement age as he did not want to lose her knowledge and skills. She obliges but finds she is missing copy deadlines and just not coping with the challenges of the job. This upsets her as previously she has been a model of professionalism and efficiency. A change of management brings things to a head. Sally knows she is not coping but does not want the shame of withdrawing from the job under a cloud.

As we live longer issues concerning memory loss are becoming more common. This Interactive Theatre Programme shows Sally's story and depicts how her waning memory affects her relationships with her husband, granddaughter and her life in general. An embarrassing incident out shopping is the tipping point. Instead of the storyline resolving the problem, audience members are invited to question the people in the story before suggesting a positive way forward for Sally. This is then carried out and afterwards all discuss the usefulness of the advice the audience gave.

Written and directed by John Somers (<http://www.tvctheatre.org/personnel/>), this Interactive Theatre Programme was performed successfully in three venues last year. It will happen at Payhembury Parish Hall at 7.30pm on Saturday 18th June.

Audience numbers are limited to 50 and admission is by ticket only (£4). Tickets can be obtained from Payhembury Shop.

Do you enjoy singing ?

The Wyndham Singers are a men's singing group, which started twelve years ago. We sing for enjoyment and to raise money for charity. We practice once a week, at the Wyndham Arms in Kentisbeare, where there's a lively, friendly atmosphere. Having a pint is not obligatory!

We have raised over £100,000 in recent years, all for local charities, and our nominated charity for 2016 is Hospiscare.

We are hoping to attract new members to our group so how about you?

We are a group of some twenty or so men of varying musical ability, who all enjoy singing, and who endeavour to improve! The ability to read music is not essential, but we do need men who can sing in tune.

If you would like to discuss this I would be very happy to meet you. Please give me a ring on 01404 841671 or e-mail me at baroda.jones@btinternet.com

To the people who organise the 'Act of Kindness' around the village, we just wanted to say how lovely it is to answer the door to be given a beautiful rose or a delicious cupcake. What a wonderful gesture and very much appreciated. Thank you so much.

The Annual General Meeting of the Payhembury Parish Hall Committee will be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday 8th June at 7.30pm All welcome!

Tale Millers CC

Tale Millers Cricket Club

It's been a busy month at Tuck Mill. First was Exeter University who managed to win with a few wickets in hand after an enjoyable evening's cricket. Yellingham Farm supplied an excellent pulled pork dinner which helped cheer up the Millers after their loss. Next were the newly formed 'Broadclyst Pins' who gave us a good game despite the sub-zero conditions. In fact the only humans outside the pavilion were the players and the extremely hardy John Somers who managed to perch on his shooting stick for 40 Siberian overs. Thanks John, for that and your future umpiring career at Tuck Mill. Did I mention our six ducks? We were cold and barely mobile.....

The last game to mention in this issue was the fixture against our good neighbours Clyst Hydon. Unfortunately we lost (just) despite impressive performances from a number of players. It was great to catch up with our old friends though over a pint and superb ham, egg and chips prepared by Ed East.

We had a great time at the Payhembury Community Associations' morning in the village hall and we hope to see all our new friends down at the Mill when the weather finally brightens up. We offer both player and social/family membership rates and all games are catered for by the excellent Yellingham Farm. We also enjoy the occasional drink from our well-stocked bar!

Hope to see you there or feel free to contact me for further details.
