Dear Friends

The sun is shining overhead, beautifully hot, the sky is bright blue but what do I see looming overhead, a dark cloud, oh no it's going to rain! I shall get cold, I haven't a coat or umbrella, panic, panic. I sigh, a cloud and rain to spoil my day. But does it? Within a few minutes the cloud has passed overhead and the sun shines and blue sky returns. Why did I worry, why did I fret?

It's our typical response isn't it? Something that could be unpleasant looms ahead and what do we do, panic, get depressed, give into negative feelings? We are all guilty of these feelings I am sure, but what about looking at the cloud as an opportunity, a time to cool off, to water the garden. I suppose because we have such changeable weather we like to grumble about it constantly, rather than appreciating our changeable climate, but then what else would we have to talk about?

We automatically think of the looming cloud in a negative way; do we do that in other parts of our lives? When we see something that could be unpleasant or disturbing do we fall into panic, or at least gloom? Sometime the unpleasant or disturbing thing may never happen, it may just pass us by and we worried about nothing. That I think is living our lives as if we were half empty glasses, looking at the negative rather than the positive. The looming cloud could be an opportunity to do something different, we could take advantage of the cloud and review what we're doing and perhaps look at something differently. That would be being positive and living as if our glass were half full.

We live in a world of much negativity and negativity leads to a loss of hope. One of the key messages of Christianity is hope. Hope that the dark clouds will pass by or the storm will soon be over or, if not, hope that whatever the cloud brings there is always sunshine after the storm because the light of Jesus shines even into the darkest of places.

We have to be positive, we must see silver linings to clouds, we must be half full not half empty people if we are to ride the storms of our troubled world, giving into the clouds prevents us from seeing the sunshine. My prayer as the nights draw in is that we let the light of Jesus Christ illuminate the darkness of our world and give us hope of a world of peace to come. I wonder, is that what is meant by blue sky thinking? Every blessing, Rev Cate

AUGUST REVIEW

"Would it be too great an exaggeration to say The Great British Bake Off had nothing on us? No, of course not!

The Broadhembury WI rolled up its collective sleeves, hitched up its knickers, and under the skilled direction of Peter Newill of Peters Pan Catering, produced the most delicious canapes you could ever taste!

There were: 'aka Terry Pratchett', 'Onna Stick' (olives, feta cheese and mange tout peas), 'Inna Bun' (mini Yorkshires filled with coronation chicken) and beef avec sauces, to name but a few!

Then, later in the month, we had a session of vigorous exercise, outdoors, of croquet and Boules, followed by a shared supper, al fresco."

SEPTEMBER MEETINGS

Friday Sept 9th at 11 am.

Do you have an older pet?

It's happy news that many of our pets are now living well into their teenage years. But how can we tell the difference between 'normal ageing change' and something that requires closer attention?

Tell-tale signs to look out for include -

- Inability to jump onto a favourite seat or get upstairs; difficulty in getting up after rest
- Change in behaviour
- Reduction in interest or ability to exercise
- Change in eating pattern or preference
- Drinking and/or urinating more
- Disorientation
- Changed sleep patterns and increased time sleeping
- Weight loss or gain.

If you think your pet is affected by any of these changes, it makes sense to take him/her to a vet for a check-up and to answer any questions you may have.

A postcard from Cyprus....

Hello friends

This is not from Parchie and Parchina but from Catharina and Costos their cousins who live in Cyprus. It is very hot here and we mice have to stay inside our nests until it is evening or we have to get up early in the morning when it is cooler.

We saw Rev Cate and her husband today. Parchie sent us a message they were coming here on holiday. They were walking on the beach in the cool of the evening.

We mice live on the edge of the beach, there are no cats to chase us but 2 big dogs; we can usually run faster than them. Parchie tells us all about the exciting things that happen in Payhembury Church.

I think Rev Cate is missing Marcus and Kirsty's wedding. I hope it was lovely. Weddings in Cyprus are great occasions but our vicars wear large black hats and usually have beards; I don't think Rev Cate looks like that.

My friends the church mice here like it in church as it is cool but we beach mice like the sea. Well I must dash now as it's cooler and I'm going to paddle my paws to cool off. I bet Parchie and Parchina will be jealous.

Nature Notes

Observations from August

Hello again

It is Thursday, August 18th, and the weather has truly broken today, from scorching sunshine to miserable greyness! Still, there are a few more birds about on the feeders -- blue and great tits, chaffinches and goldfinches. I'm afraid we've had a fatality -- a young jackdaw. It looked a bit sorry for itself yesterday, and has expired during the night --very sad!

Many of you will know there is a lovely buddleia by the stream. There have been lots of butterflies on it recently -- I saw peacocks, red admirals, small tortoiseshells and a painted lady -- plus whites, of course!

Len tells me that a red kite has been seen near Colestocks recently. It would be great if he or she stayed around, because we don't see many of them in East Devon. There are lots of them in other parts of the country, mainly in the Chilterns and Wales. You may know that red kites were hunted to extinction in Britain in the nineteenth century.

Pam has seen a little owl in Luton and Biddie tells me she had a pair of green woodpeckers in her garden. Tony has been visited by a posse of long tailed tits, and I've seen them too!

BaraBrith / Tea Cake

This is one of Sandra Ford's favourite recipes (greatly enjoyed by all who attend her church coffee mornings!)

"It couldn't be easier to make, and it's delicious," says Sandra

Ingredients

375gr/12oz mixed fruit
227gr/8oz light muscovado
sugar
300ml/½ pint strong hot tea
(use 3 bags)
300gr/10oz self-raising flour
1 large egg, beaten
tsp. each nutmeg,
cinnamon, mixed spices

Method

Pre-heat oven 130 deg Fan/150
deg Conv. / gas 20
Lightly grease 2lb loaf tin, line with baking parchment.

Measure fruit and sugar into bowl.
Pour in hot tea, cover and leave overnight.

Stir flour and beaten egg into the fruit mixture and mix thoroughly.
Turn into tin and level the surface.
Bake in pre-heated oven for ½ - 2 hours until well risen and firm to touch.

Leave to cool, then serve sliced and buttered.

Freezes very well.

Yummy!

Parish Coffee Morning

We were so fortunate to enjoy the Coffee Morning in July in Steve and Sandra's pretty garden.

As always Sandra spoiled us with delicious scones and cakes and it was good to see so many there, with some new faces too. Very many thanks to Sandra and Steve and their granddaughter for their kind hospitality.

Doris Mary Ellis

August 15, 1916 - August 17, 2016

"The heart has gone out of our small community at Lower Cheriton"

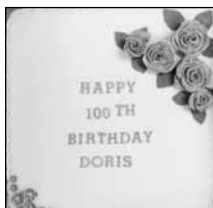

Doris reading her 100th birthday greetings card from the Queen, at home on August 15

Doris Ellis, who lived all her life at Cheriton Farm, and who celebrated her 100th birthday on August 15, sadly died just two days later in hospital following a fall at home. Fiercely independent, Doris, who never married, continued to live alone at the family farm after the deaths of her farmer brothers, John and Cyril, offering a warm welcome and hospitality to her many visitors and neighbourly helpers. "She was a wonderful lady", said her good friend and neighbour, Ray Mugford. "And we were so pleased she was able to celebrate her magnificent birthday. The heart has gone out of our small community at Lower Cheriton." Postman Marty Richards echoed these sentiments and added, "Cheriton will never be the same again".

Tour of Britain - Stage 6 is coming here Friday September 9th

You could have the chance of seeing cycling heroes Sir Bradley Wiggins and Mark Cavendish MBE, both fresh from the Rio Olympics, battle it out at stage six of the Tour of Britain on Friday September 9th.

Ten top level WorldTour teams will compete for the first time in this year's Tour of Britain - with both the teams of Mark Cavendish and Sir Bradley Wiggins confirmed.

If you wanted to see the cyclists pass Broadhembury/Payhembury crossroads, the first riders are due in Honiton at 12 noon, so maybe from 12.10pm? But there could well be better vantage points in Honiton, Ottery or Cullompton.

Stage 6 starts in Sidmouth and ends in Haytor. For main en-route points and estimated ETAs, visit www.devontourofbritain.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/sites/6/2016/07/Stage-6-Sidmouth-Haytor-ETA-v2.pdf

CLARETS' CORNER

The clarets had a disappointing start to the premier league season with a home defeat against Swansea City. I think a draw would have been a fair result as we had a clear penalty turned down. It's early days so don't panic - we are staying up! I was so sad to hear that DORIS ELLIS has passed away. I had the privilege and pleasure of delivering her 100th birthday card from the QUEEN on Monday 15th when she seemed in good spirits and full of smiles, only to be told she passed away just two days later. What a wonderful lady she was. CHERITON will never be the same again.

See you around the village and UP THE CLARETS!

MARTY

Editor: Late result: Burnley had a great win 2-0 against Liverpool on the 20th!

Your emails to the Editor:

From Joy Morgan:

"In May 2011 this paper printed a plea from me, to users of the lane between Colestocks and Hembury Fort, to please, please reduce speed. How sad that 5 years later I need to repeat myself.

I then asked for consideration be given to we folk who live on this lane as I had just acquired a wonderful companion - a cat called Muffy, who was not very quick at crossing the lane (my garden spans both sides) and I was getting older and not so nimble!

So in August 2016 Muffy knows when to leap to safety but I am much slower than I was and my leaping-out-of-the-way days are well gone.

Someone, one day, is going to be hurt. All it needs is common sense, consideration and ordinary decency to drive at a speed to suit these beautiful lanes that surround us. Why live in the country if you drive around too fast to see or appreciate it?

I must thank the many drivers who are aware of Muffy, me and the others who live here, who slow down, acknowledge us etc. and drive with care.

To those who drive far too fast and carelessly up or down – please – JUST DON'T. Take another route please. I know who some of you are, and you know who you are, please just don't let us have an accident.

Thank you."

Editor: For the past year or so, Payhembury Womblers (aka Rich Gannon and Nan Underhill) have taken it upon themselves to collect roadside rubbish from around the village and beyond. Their neighbourly efforts have galvanised new Womblers in the area. But the battle against roadside litter is not yet won - as evidenced by the reader who sent this email:

Nation of litter louts

"This was the haul from a Sunday stroll from Colestocks to Payhembury via Milton and return via Glebe.

21 drinks tins

6 paper cups

1 bottle

4 plastic bottles

3 cigarette packets

36 sundry pieces of rubbish

Yours disgustedly

Womble of Colestocks"

From "Would-be film downloader":

"The Government says we are all to get fast broadband by 2017.

Open Reach website says our area postcodes will have fibre optic service by December this year but admits in the small print, it won't be "all" properties. But they aren't saying which will and which won't.

BT customer service say fast broadband is not is not available for my phone no. And they have "no idea" when it might be! Argh!"

Payhembury Weather

www.payhembury-weather.co.uk

Rainfall: July and so far in August have been dry months with less than half the average. Water butts are getting empty. By the time you read this though we should have had some welcome rain for the garden.

Temperatures: Temperatures have been close to normal this summer with no exceptional heat waves and 27 degC being the highest temperature in Payhembury on 19th July.

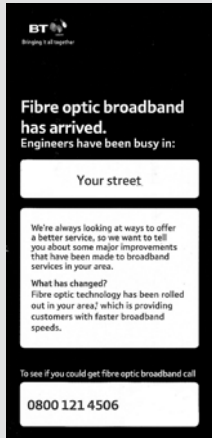

Weather elsewhere: With prolonged drought in California wild fires have been forcing people out of their homes and it has been the same near Marseille in southern France and Portugal. In contrast at least 11 people have died in severe flooding that has swamped a large swath of southeastern Louisiana and southern Mississippi. Finally July 2016 has been reported by NASA to be the world's hottest month on record.

Has one of these exciting postcards from BT popped through your letter box recently ?

Are you one of the lucky few locally for whom fast Fibre Optic Broadband is a reality?

Or have you, like Nan Underhill and Rich Gannon who live in Warren Close, had the answer “No” from BT on ringing them?

Nan and Rich felt so strongly about the lack of support from BT that they posted their complaint on the village and shop notice boards, urging people to ring BT and “give them so much grief that maybe they DO give us fibre optic broadband.”

Should we, as a village be pressing our case more strongly? Would it make any difference? Do get in touch and let us know your experience or opinion.

Editor: My experience has been similar to Nan & Rich’s. BT told me that faster broadband was “not available” for my address and could give no idea if, or when, it might be. “Fingers crossed for you” was the best response I received from them. Meanwhile, I await an email response from OpenReach Fibre Enquiries Team who have “picked up my case”and “forwarded it to the concerned team for investigation”.

This year FOPs have raised over £2000 with the help and support of all the parents. The committee’s job is an easy one because we have you, so thank you from us all.

We are losing Sue Holmes and Lisa Weeks from our committee this year, they have both been amazing supporters of FOPs and the school over many years. They have been gifted an apple tree to remember the school and all the special times they’ve had with us. On Thursday 15th September at 3:45pm in school, we will have our AGM and elect a new committee. Come and have your say. There is absolutely no requirement to be on the committee. Kirsty

NEWS from Payhembury Provisions ...

Phew, what a scorcher! I'm writing this on one of the hottest days this year so I've been thinking about ice-cream and I thought you might like to know a bit more about the local company, Otter Valley Dairy which supplies our shop. They are based at Aplins Farm which is just the other side of Honiton on the A30.

They are very much a family business with three generations involved in running the dairy farm and making ice-cream using only milk from their own herd of Holsteins. All the ice-cream is made in small batches with natural flavourings and ripples added by hand and it has won many awards both nationally and regionally including 2 gold awards at this year's Taste of the West.

They have a great time dreaming up and tasting new flavours ranging from good old vanilla and chocolate to the more adventurous lime and lemon meringue or Irish cream and everything in between, 26 flavours in all and we have about 10 of them in the shop at the moment!

We live in such a great part of the country for food production and it is our policy at Payhembury Provisions to stock as many local products as we can, as well as affordable everyday goods. Talking about local suppliers, we owe a big thank you to all the people who have given us their surplus garden produce to sell in the shop, we have had redcurrants, squashes, beans, courgettes and herbs, all fresher than fresh and delicious too. You can't get more local than that!

Finally, now that term is starting, if there are any mums or dads with a little bit of time to spare please give a thought to volunteering at the shop, it's sociable and fun, you could learn some new skills and you'd be assured of a very warm welcome from us all, just come into the shop or give Anne Baxter a ring on 841345. We'd love to have you on board!

Mary

And remember - should we get an Indian Summer, you can find all the ingredients you need for a tasty barbecue in the shop.
