In the Beginning... was the Big Splash (also known as the Big Bang).

Into the infinite and eternal Pond of Grace was dropped a pebble. Ripples spread across space and time. Light leapt joyfully to fill the darkness. Atoms and molecules joined hands to dance in new arrangements. Stars and galaxies arose rejoicing to ride a passing wave, then collapsed back again. Life bobbed as a beautiful boat on the waves.

And the Pond of Grace, deep and wide as the ocean, was filled with goodness.

But the pond became muddied. It became harder to peer down through the depths that were once crystal clear. The sun had sparkled off the waves, but now clouds greyed the light, and a chill wind darkened the water's surface. The expanse of the ocean now seemed fearful. People withdrew to its edges, seeking safety, or even out of it altogether.

Yet the ripples of Grace continued, quietly and undeterred, spreading from their eternal source. And above the wind a voice could be heard, a whispered invitation to return to the waves. The adventurous responded, and pushed their boats out from the shore to sea. They felt anew the rise and fall of the swell, and sensed it was good. They rode the surf by the shore. They swam, diving deep and glimpsing the clear depths. They cast a line, and glistening silvery fish tumbled onto the deck. And they rejoiced.

Galileo, the famous astronomer, said this:

'The sun, with all those planets revolving around it and dependent on it, can still ripen a bunch of grapes as if it had nothing else in the universe to do.'

It's Harvest season. Fields of corn that rippled in the wind have now been brought in. Ripened grapes have been plucked from the vines (few in these parts, perhaps). We are lifted on a seasonal wave of provision and Grace.

May we have courage to adventure into the deep ocean of life. To swim and surf and dive in the proverbial depths, that though they may seem murky, we may catch new glimpses of the crystal waters. To feel, perhaps anew, the Grace which surrounds us and carries the world. And know that the Pond of Grace is good.

Playing fields improvements Tell us what you think!

The Parish Council are starting a project to improve the playing fields and would like your ideas for what you would like to see there and your feedback on their initial thoughts. A landscape design showing a possible layout is shown opposite and on the parish website (www.payhemburyparishcouncil.org.uk) and the Council would love to hear your views on that design. The playing fields consist of 4 main areas – the tennis court, the football pitch, the playground and a grassy area to the left of the other three.

Tennis court – this area had a major overhaul a few years ago so the main idea for here is to add a basketball area and hoop.

Football pitch – the current idea is to level this site and tidy up the pitch with suitable goals and markings and to provide a raised banking area between the pitch and the tennis court with seats for watching both tennis and football.

Playground – the Parish Council have some ideas for the sorts of things that are popular in a playground but they would really like to hear, from children of all ages, what you would like to see here. The playground measures approx. 18.5m by 24m which is roughly the same proportions as an A4 piece of paper – so the Council would love to receive your diagrams of what you would like to see in this space. What sorts of equipment should there be and what should it look like? Diagrams can be left in the box in the shop or emailed to payhemburypc@googlemail.com.

Grassy area on the left – ideas include creating a quiet seating area at the top with views towards Hembury fort, together with a picnic area, an all-weather path suitable for wheelchair access (including a link into the churchyard) and suitable planting of trees etc.

The playing fields are your area, so it is important that the improvements give you what you want. Please send your views, thoughts, ideas, suggestions and diagrams either to payhemburypc@googlemail.com or leave them in the box in the shop.

Redevelopment of the buildings surrounding Slade Barton

A reminder that the independent Housing Need survey requested by East Devon District Council, as part of the planning application for the redevelopment of the buildings surrounding Slade Barton, will be sent to every house in the parish towards the end of September or early in October. There is a four week period in which to return the completed surveys and the completed report is expected to be available about three weeks after the closing date.

See www.devoncommunities.org.uk/services/rural-housing/housing-need-surveys for further general information about Housing Need surveys in Devon.

W.I. and The Power of Story October 8th, 7.30pm, Broadhembury Hall

September meeting

Our pursuit of knowledge and wisdom in a Comparative Study of Monotheistic World Religions, led us to travel to the Church of England's Cathedral, after having learned some while ago all we could at the Synagogue and Mosque in Exeter.

The chronological origin of Christianity lies between those two religions, and that of the Church of England is even more recent...in 1500 and something. When the Normans came to power here, they liked making castles and cathedrals, and built early and often and large, starting Exeter Cathedral in 1114 AD, which was doubled in size 150-200 years later.

There were brief prayers every hour, echoing the words of the publicity leaflet, that we would "feel the presence of nearly a thousand years of prayer in this holy place." Then we had lunch in the cloisters.

On October 8th, we are looking forward to welcoming Victoria Woodward, who will talk to us about "The Power Of Story."

If you would be interested in coming along and seeing what goes on at the modern WI, you will be very welcome.

Please contact Julie on 841189.

Coffee Morning

Wednesday 23rd, 11am, Parklands

It is always a pleasure to visit Roy's beautiful garden and a great many took the opportunity to join us for the Coffee Morning in August. Very many thanks to Roy, and also to Louise, for their warm hospitality.

The next Coffee Morning will be at 'Parklands' on Wednesday 23rd October at the usual time of 11a.m. by kind invitation of Pat Le Page, where once again we are assured of a warm welcome.

For more information about the Coffee Mornings please give me a call on 841828.

Marjorie

Do you have an event to publicise or some news to share? Email us at payhemburypaper@yahoo.co.uk by 4pm, October 18th at the latest.

If you know you're going to be sending an article in, please let us know in advance if possible, so we can leave space. Thank you!

Tea and Bingo Report - September

We had a goodly number this month, but missed Julie who was in hospital. Hope you get better soon Julie!

Marjorie made a lovely apple cake – much swapping of recipes – and Sue cheated and brought a Hoops cake from the shop, but they are very good.

Once again we have to thank Vivien for calling and it was nice that Edward joined us this time.

Next meeting:

Wed 2nd Oct in the Six Bells at 2.15pm

As usual, any queries or lifts required, phone Marjorie (841110) or Sue (841103).

For your diaries: Future meetings will be 6th Nov and 4th Dec.

Members meeting: Thursday, October 10th, 7.30pm, Village Hall

Our annual members meeting is to be held on Thursday, October 10th at 7.30pm in the village hall and we are looking forward to welcoming all our shareholders, volunteers and customers to hear about how we are doing now and our plans for the future. Our meeting currently holds the record for the shortest and speediest AGM in Payhembury and we aim to continue in this fine tradition, with tea and cake afterwards as well, so we hope this will encourage you all to come along.

We always like to support local enterprise in whatever form it takes and so September saw us hosting a very special event when Payhembury author Jane Hugen-Tobler (known to many of us as Jane Wood) came to the shop to sign copies of her book, Love, Life and Lemons. If you were too late to place an order in the shop, her book can be found on Amazon where it has received 5 star reviews. Congratulations Jane, on your success.

The latest local products to land on our shelves are a new line of modern craft ales from the Many Hands Brew company in Dunkeswell. This company only started brewing in 2017, but they have already won two Great Taste awards. It's the opinions of our customers that count with us though, so we now have a blackboard in the shop specially for you to write your recommendations and suggestions. If you're a budding food and drink critic, please get tasting and share your thoughts; we promise to take note of them all, however quirky they may be!

The University of the Third Age: 'Learn, Laugh & Live'

Wednesday 16th of October, The Beehive Centre

The Honiton U3A will be meeting on Wednesday 16th of October, when U3A member Stewart Raine will be giving his talk entitled 'You can do a lot of things at The Seaside'. Stewart will explore the origins and development of the seaside with particular reference to Devon, to their heyday in the 1950s and then their decline from 1970. Examining how visitors travelled, where they stayed and the entertainment offered.

Venue: The Beehive, Dowell Street, Honiton
Doors open 1.30pm for a 2pm start.

Broadhembury and District Gardening Club

Wednesday October 2nd at 7.30 pm, Broadhembury Memorial Hall

Our September meeting was very well attended and Alec Coultts from the Pig at Combe talked enthusiastically about his job as head gardener.

We were shown some of the interesting vegetables which are grown, including mushrooms. In the summer, the garden provides approximately 80% of the produce required and about 20% in the winter. The kitchen garden is well worth a visit and you can go just for a coffee and spend some time in the garden seeing all the herbs, fruits and vegetables produced.

Our October meeting will be held in Broadhembury Memorial Hall on Wednesday October 2nd at 7.30 pm. The speaker will be Tom Sharples who will talk to us 'In Praise of Perennials'.

New members and visitors are always most welcome to come and enjoy excellent speakers, tea and cake, a superb raffle and the company of other gardeners. Visitors usually £2, annual membership £10.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank Carole and Don for giving me a marvellous surprise 80th party and the entertainment by Elvis. What a night! And thanks to all who came and helped to make it great. I would also like to thank all who came to our 'open house', Clive, who was a top class barman, and all who sent cards and gifts.

Thank you so much.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Hattie and Amaya would like to say a big thank you to everyone who came to their coffee morning in aid of Macmillan. It raised £225 including gift aid.

Thank you!

Macmillan Coffee Morning at The Six Bells

A huge thanks to Lucy Hammond who organised the coffee morning at the Six Bells Inn, including the advertising and organisation of the cakes. £150 was raised in total. Thank you also to Carole and Don for donating the bacon rolls and coffee.

Thank you everyone for your support.

Payhembury Village Hall Update

A big thank you to all your support for Payhembury Party in the Park. We raised over £1200 with all your help and generosity. We will be updating the Village Hall website with some photos from the day, so keep checking in. There will be some new events added to the calendar too. We are using the money to make improvements like the ramp at the back to make access much easier. Adding some money to it, we are making changes to the kitchen. Please get in touch if you have ideas on how the kitchen would work for you if you are users. We want it to suit all needs, both local, church, school and if we hold catering events or weddings for example. Email me with any suggestions. Any planned works would be undertaken in the school summer holidays, but all the planning will be happening this year so we can book in any contractors. mariabanham@gmail.com

Big thank you to Kevin Wooff for all his amazing efforts and hard work in his Chair Person role for the Hall Committee. Kevin has stepped down and Maria Banham is now stepping in and will be voted in officially at the next AGM.

Payhembury Spring Bulb and Flower Show 2020

The Bulb Show committee have decided it would be a good idea to put each of the classes in the paper over the coming months, starting with the bulb section.

SECTION A

BULBS AND PLANTS GROWING IN CONTAINERS

Class

- 1: 3 Hyacinths – any colour
- 2: A pot of Daffodils – long trumpet
- 3: A pot of Daffodils – large cup
- 4: A pot of Narcissi – any type dwarf/small/minature
- 5: A bowl of Pansies
- 6: An Amaryllis
- 7: A flowering plant in a pot
- 8: A foliage plant in a pot
- 9: A Succulent or Cacti in a pot

CLARIFICATION OF CLASSES

Classes 2 and 10: "long trumpet" means that the trumpet must be as long as, or longer than, the petals of the flower. E.g. King Alfred, Golden Harvest or Rembrandt.

Classes 3 and 11: "large cup" means that the cup of the flower must be more than one third the length of, but not as long as, the petals. E.g. Carlton, Professor Einstein or Sempre Avanti.

Class 12: "small cup" means that the cup must be less than one third the length of the petals. E.g. Barrett Browning, Edward Buxton or Aflame.

The show is a very special annual occasion and this year will be the 57th! If you're new to the village and wondering what it's all about, feel free to email me: j.wood873@btinternet.com and I will be happy to explain.

Good luck to all you gardeners out there. The new schedules will be in the shop soon, but in the meantime happy bulb planting...

Jane Wood

Dog poo on village green

The Parish Council have received complaints about people allowing their dogs to use the village green as a toilet and not clearing up after them. Please can all dog owners ensure they clear up after their pets. Dog poo bins are provided outside of the school and on the Colestocks end of the new footpath. Thank you to all those dog owners who do clear up after their dogs.

We have a new editor!

Hannah Corfield will be editing her first issue next month. Kate, Victoria and Christine are very grateful to have her on the team. Please make it as easy as possible for her by sending articles in early if you can!

Payhembury Weather

www.payhembury-weather.co.uk

Rainfall: August was a wet month with nearly twice the average and with 40 mm falling on 9 August marking an end to a dry July. Another wet day was 9 September when the rain rate was exceptional in some places causing flooding in Mill St in Ottery St Mary.

Temperatures: Both August and so far in September the daytime temperatures have been well above average but cooler at night. On 25 August the warmest day of the summer was reached at 28.7 degC. Last summer it reached 32.5 degC.

Weather elsewhere: Hurricane Dorian had sustained winds of 185mph when it made landfall on the Abacos Islands on 1st September. This equalled the highest winds ever recorded for a hurricane at landfall when it struck. At least 50 people were killed and 1300 are still missing in the Bahamas. Meanwhile Bolivian wildfires have destroyed almost five million acres of forest and grassland since August, according to officials. Almost half of the losses are in "protected" areas, known for high biodiversity.

Paul's Nature Notes from August/September

As summer turns into autumn, we have been facing strong winds and a lot more rain. The bog garden has been awash over recent days, but as warmer days returned we were blessed with excellent numbers of butterflies. Most of our Painted Ladies have gone from the garden and I suspect many will have commenced their autumn migration back to Europe and thence to where their forebears came from earlier in the year. This has been an excellent year for this species, almost matching the last big one in 2009 when an estimated 11m reached our shores.

There are many strange things in nature and one I often marvel at is how moths often hatch in exactly the same week every year, sometimes on the very same day. There are, of course, exceptions when adverse weather conditions can impact adversely on their first appearance. It will be interesting to monitor this as the climate changes. I first started monitoring moth populations in 2007 and so my database is now starting to reach a stage where some realistic conclusions can be drawn.

We have become fascinated by juvenile Chiffchaffs hunting for insects in the cotoneaster outside our conservatory. One was even trying to practice his calls, but still had a lot to learn.

Another juvenile, this time a Sparrowhawk, swooped in and settled on the lawn, not that it caught anything. I have been wondering if this is the same bird I have been seeing around the village. This reminded me that it will soon be time to restock the bird feeders – this always encourages them to arrive on one of their 'bombing' raids, hedge-hopping at an extremely low level in an attempt to surprise the other birds.

There had been a family of Little Owls around, announcing their appearance every night by their distinctive calls. The juveniles were constantly calling to be fed, that is until a Tawny Owl appeared on the scene. It was just a little past ten o'clock at night when I heard a reasonably close call from a tawny. A few minutes later there was the most prolonged call I have ever heard, a really triumphant sound, which was immediately followed by the continuous call of a Little Owl. This lasted several minutes, gradually subsiding until there was silence again. What do they say about nature being red in tooth and claw? I can only surmise about what had happened!

Reporting issues with roads

Devon County Council have a dedicated website page for reporting issues with the roads - www.devon.gov.uk/roadsandtransport/report-a-problem. Recent road issues in the parish have included potholes, overgrown vegetation obscuring signs and lines on the road becoming too faint to see. All of these issues can be reported direct to DCC via one of the options on the above website. You can also upload photos of the problem when you report it which will help DCC to identify and fix the problem. The 'useful links' page of the Payhembury Parish Council website has this link together with other useful links - www.payhemburyparishcouncil.org.uk
