Dear Friends,

As I write this letter we are quickly approaching that mad and frenetic time of year - Christmas. Prior to this we have the lead up period of preparation which in the church is known as Advent. Traditionally at this time we have used imagery of looking for the light, seeking the light of Christ through the darkness of winter.

Winter this year has been slow in coming, the temperature has been slow to drop though the rain certainly hasn't. The leaves have remained on many of the trees longer than usual despite the winds. So we could say that winter hasn't really set in as it might. Perhaps we haven't really noticed the decline in the amount of light around us, or have we?

Light is essential for growth, we can't do without light. For many people the lack of sunlight causes great emotional distress so in fact light is essential for all of God's creation to flourish. We use light in many ways in religious practice. We light candles to remember God's presence with us, we light candles to remind us that Jesus is the light of the world and that he lights our paths, we light candles as a sign of prayer, we light candles to remember our loved ones departed and we light candles in celebration. The bringing of light into a situation is extremely important and uplifting both in its religious significance and its social significance.

At this time of the year as we enter Advent, the preparation period, we are moving towards that great celebration of the birth of Jesus, God in human form, who brought light into a very dark world. We celebrate this season by lighting up our houses with a variety of decorations and as we do so may we think about the lighting up of our world by the baby in the manger, who brought God's love into the world directly to each one of us and in doing so lights each one of us up with his love. As we dash headlong into this season, with all that it brings, let us just pause for a moment of wonder and be lit up with the reason for the season, Jesus the light of the world.

May I wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year.

Every blessing, Rev Cate

CHRISTMAS TIME FOR PETS

Christmas time, full of joy and cheer with presents under the tree and Christmas dinner smelling better than ever! We as vets want to ensure you and your pets have a great Christmas without a trip to the practice.

Cats are often more fascinated by Christmas trees than us and like to climb and explore. Make sure your tree is secure and any glass decorations or those with sharp edges are out of the way of your intrigued feline. Cats can also enjoy a nibble on tinsel. They tend to eat lengths of stringy material which then causes a concertina effect on the intestines. This can be very harmful and requires surgery to treat, so keeping tinsel and string out of harm's way is much safer!

What Christmas is complete without chocolate? Unfortunately many dogs, and sometimes cats, also believe this to be true! Chocolate can cause vomiting and diarrhoea and in larger doses, liver failure and can be fatal. The higher the cocoa content the more the risk so keep those expensive dark chocolate truffles out of the way of any investigative hounds in the house! Be wary of chocolates on the tree and wrapped in presents within reach. Remember a small number of extra treats can lead to rapid weight gain which can take a long time to lose.

Dried fruit is also a risk to dogs and can cause renal failure so keep Christmas pudding, mince pies and Christmas cake away from low tables or other places your crafty hound may be able to get to.

For some of us, it can all get a bit much at these festive times. We may like our house being filled with family, friends and music but not all our pets do. For some, the bustle and noise can be very stressful. If you have a timid pet who enjoys the quiet, make sure there is somewhere peaceful that they can go to not be disturbed. They may prefer to have their food and litter tray in a hidden corner.

Most importantly, have a wonderful Christmas with your furry friends and if you have any worries or suspect your pet has eaten something they shouldn't, don't hesitate to call your vet for advice. Merry Christmas from The Vale Veterinary Group!

Order forms are now available in the shop to be completed and returned no later than Friday 12th December please. Your order will be ready for collection on Tuesday 23rd December in the Parish Hall from 9am to 11am.

When ordering your poultry why not take advantage of the Christmas order form to request your vegetable, delicatessen, dairy and fruit items too? They'll be packed and ready for collection on Tuesday 23rd December along with your turkey or goose. What could be easier?

The shop is also stocking a range of foodie gifts and who doesn't like to receive a present of delicious biscuits, preserves, chutney, chocolates or wine? We have some tempting treats that would be perfect for the man (or woman!) who has everything. Don't miss out on the panettone, which is presented in a beautiful tin, so no wrapping required! # Nature Notes

Observations from November

Hello again

We'll start off with animals this month. I was passing the stream near Milton when a slight movement caught my eye - a squirrel in the stream? - no, not a squirrel but a stoat! He (or she!) was having a drink, but shot away quickly on seeing me. I was very pleased to see it because one rarely sees a stoat. Ray tells me he saw not one but four deer in the lower mead field the other day.

Back to birds and I always take a look into the village stream when I'm passing by. The grey wagtails are about again and I was lucky enough to see a dipper in the stream one day in late October. If you don't know the dipper, it's about blackbird size, has dark plumage but with a large pure white round mark on its breast. It stays beside fast flowing water. Indeed, dippers walk along the bottom of streams to find food. It gets its name from its characteristic habit of bobbing up and down quickly, i.e. dipping. Or is it because it 'dips' in the water?

Anne tells me she's seen a kingfisher in her garden pond - how lucky! There was a green woodpecker climbing up Nan's tree trunk. Green woodies are normally seen here in summertime, digging for ants in the grass, so it's good to have them in late autumn. The great spotted woodies are back in our garden - one returned to a feeder several times yesterday! The last time I walked to Milton one flew into a tall tree followed by a jay which landed close to it. There was a scuffle and the jay flew away quickly - woodies have very powerful beaks! I heard my first winter thrush cackling overhead. Looking up, I saw several in the sky. These are the fieldfares, our winter visitors from Scandinavia. We usually get hundreds of them each winter and they stay here feeding on the windfall apples in Angus's orchard.

Payhembury Youth Club Still Needs You!

The Youth Club is in need of a new play leader for our Junior session from 5.30-7.00pm on Monday evenings (term time only) to start after Christmas. If we can't find someone there's a real risk that the Youth Club may not be able to continue as we won't have enough leaders to cover our ratios. This position could be held by one person, or we could have a number of people making up a rota. Please let us know if you can help, or spread the message wide to help us find someone. There's no age or gender restriction, anyone who's interested is encouraged to join us.

This year has been a real success with lots of great events, including the now traditional Party in the Park. We don't want to lose this, so please help if you can.

Youth Club sessions: Juniors (age 7-11) 5.30-7.00pm, Seniors (11+) 7.00-8.30pm, all on Monday evenings (term time only) in the Parish Hall. £1.50 per session. Children in Year 6 may choose to join Seniors when they turn 11, or stay in Juniors until they're in Year 7.

Electoral Review of Devon

The Local Government Boundary Commission has opened a public consultation, inviting comments on drawing new electoral division boundaries across Devon.

Local people know their area best, so the Electoral Review is asking for your suggestions about division boundaries, which areas you identify as your local community and where you go to access local facilities.

More details and interactive maps at www.consultation.lgbce.org.uk. The consultation closes on 19 January.

Hi friends

We mice have been practicing our carols so we can go out carol singing again this year. We had such fun last year that we are really excited about carolling again this year. This picture was taken when we were practicing and we had a nice fire to keep us warm. We mice you know get very cold, so we need to wrap up warmly. Our little toes get very chilled walking in the cold and wet.

We are really looking forward to Christmas. We love Christmas in church, all the lovely singing and decorations and of course all the lovely nibbles which we get when you have all gone!

We really enjoy playing around the Christmas tree but sometimes Mum tells us off when we swing on the branches and knock off the baubles. You will have to see if any are missing or dented!

We had great fun in November when the confirmation service came to our church. We enjoyed watching from our usual hidey hole. We hadn't seen a bishop before, we were very impressed with his finery and loved his special hat. It was lovely to see the church full and everyone looking so happy. We had another happy occasion when baby Rosie was baptized, smiling faces all around - what a joy.

Smiling faces are what we hope we will have on Christmas morning too, not only when we open our presents but at our special service on Christmas morning as well. We will see you soon and keep in good voice just like us mice! Love from

Parchie and Parchina

Payhembury Weather

www.payhembury-weather.co.uk

Rainfall: October rainfall was close to the average but the start of November has been very wet with three times the normal rainfall. Local flooding was experienced around Payhembury on the 8th of November and once again storms battered the coast.

Temperatures: October and November temperatures continue the trend of being very warm with records broken for highest maximum in November and highest minimum in October. As a result lawn mowing has continued into November.

Weather elsewhere: Severe flooding in NW Italy on the 15th of November. The Met Office opened its Space Weather Forecasting Centre on the 8th of October. Space weather covers a variety of phenomenon including impacts from solar flares, geomagnetic storms and coronal mass ejections from the Sun. These can impact our satellite services, power distribution and exposure to radiation of flights over the poles. Finally a study has shown that the ozone hole is on track to recover in a few decades as a result of phasing out ozone depleting chemicals.

Parish Coffee Morning

Very many thanks to Pat Le Page for hosting the coffee morning in October. As always Pat made us very welcome and as Adrian rekindled the fire no-one was in a hurry to leave! The men made a beeline into the conservatory and were equally reluctant to go.

As we do not hold a Coffee Morning in December may I take this opportunity to wish you all a very peaceful and happy Christmas and to thank everyone once again for their support during the year. The PCC are truly grateful for the sums raised for church funds by our generous hosts.

Please check the Parish Paper in January for news of when and where our next Coffee Morning will take place.

Feniton and Payhembury Mothers' Union

Members met on 15th October in the Parish Hall but unfortunately the Speaker was unable to attend. However, following a hymn and prayers, members were able to chat about Mothers' Union matters over a cup of tea and biscuits and put the world to rights! A report of the meeting on 19th November will be given next month.

Our Christmas celebration of readings and carols will be held on Wednesday 10th December at 2.30pm in Payhembury Parish Hall with the usual raffle and bring and buy stall. ## THANK YOU!

We would like to say a huge thank you to all those that came along and supported this year's Tea and Cake in aid of the Nystagmus Network.

It means a lot to us but even more to Nystagmus Network.
